Presenting an exclusive Feng Shui presentation as part of a special woman event called "Healing the Womb" organized by Kiana Love

Whether you are looking for Mr or Mrs Right or you already have this person in your life today, you want to make it special and long lasting.

Feng Shui is an ancestral Asian art of placement, today used by successful corporations, business men and women and well known artists.

With Feng Shui, you bring balance and harmony in your life by balancing the "Chi" energy in your living space. Feng Shui practitioners have learned to create harmonious environments using natural elements, which by their very design, attract the best possible health, wealth and supportive relationships.

Marie Burgos, Feng Shui Expert and Interior Designer for Manoblue Design explains how to enhance your relationship or attract love to your life by setting up your bedroom with the help of Feng Shui.

She will make sure you will be ready for this special relationship!
